- Understand their role in order to be able to work collaboratively with classroom teachers and other colleagues, including specialist advisory teachers
- Work as part of a team and develop effective professional relationships with colleagues

Main Tasks:

- Provide pupils with the level and type of support specified by the teacher, whilst at the same time encouraging the pupils towards independence and accepting responsibility for their own behaviour.
- Temporarily supervise a whole class during the short-term absence of teachers (under supervision of a teacher in a nearby classroom).
- Establish and maintain a good relationship with pupils.
- Promote positive pupil behaviour in line with school policies by the use of praise and encouragement both in the classroom and on the playground as required.
- Undertake playground supervision during the mid-morning break.
- Help pupils with toileting and dressing, paying particular attention to hygiene.
- Supervise children's play involving toys and apparatus and role play under the direction of the teacher.
- Support the use of ICT in the classroom and to help promote e-safety at all times.
- To assist in the maintenance of a safe environment for pupils and staff.
- To assist in the presentation of display materials.
- To assist with supervision during sports activities and educational visits.
- To work with individuals/small groups in or out of the classroom.
- To take part in training activities offered by the school and the county to further knowledge
- To undertake annual training on Safeguarding and to exercise a high degree of vigilance, being consistently aware of the need to follow safeguarding policy and procedures.
- To promote inclusion and equality of opportunity regardless of gender, race, cultural background, ability, religious beliefs, sexual orientation or any additional physical, sensory or emotional needs.

Health and safety - Teaching assistants are expected to:

- Promote the safety and wellbeing of pupils, and help to safeguard pupils' well-being by following the requirements of Keeping Children Safe in Education and our school's child protection policy
- Look after children who are upset or have had accidents

Professional development - Teaching assistants are expected to:

- Help keep their own knowledge and understanding relevant and up-to-date by reflecting on their own practice, liaising with school leaders, and identifying relevant professional development to improve personal effectiveness
- Take opportunities to build the appropriate skills, qualifications, and/or experience needed for the role, with support from the school
- Take part in the school's appraisal procedures

Personal and professional conduct – Teaching Assistants are expected to:

- Uphold public trust in the education profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school
- Have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the Rutland Learning Trust schools, and maintain high standards of attendance and punctuality
- Demonstrate positive attitudes, values and behaviours to develop and sustain effective relationships with the school community
- Respect individual differences and cultural diversity
